Stunning farm with fantastic location

This stunning property, full of charm and character is ideal for a large family home or to turn into a successful country side hotel. The location and amenities within the property make it a very special and unique piece of real estate.

With an impressive overall size of 20.000 square meters of land, overlooking the surrounding countryside with the sea and mountains in the distance. The land develops on a slope where you will find the impressive house on the highest point, enjoying total privacy and tranquility.

The house develops in three levels being that most of the accommodation is on the ground level. The composition is made of entrance hall, office, large living room with dining area with big windows and access to a long south facing terrace with breathtaking views. The access to the kitchen is made from the living room and, to the west part of the ground level, you have 5 bedrooms all with en-suite bathrooms. On the first floor, you have two bedrooms, also with en-suit
